Notes

In Scotland, the term "walking" means any travelling on foot which does not include running or roped climbing and doesn't use hands for keeping one attached to the ground. Equivalent terms abroad are hiking, tramping, trekking, etc. Where the use of hands is required to maintain balance we use the term "scrambling". The grading is a general indication. If you'd like to check further, please contact us.

Grade 1 for:
Novices, armchair walkers, intermittent exercisers.
TERRAIN: Flattish or mildly undulating, uncomplicated. Mostly paths.
AVERAGE DAILY DISTANCE: 5-8 miles (8-13km)
AVERAGE DAILY ASCENT: Less than 1000ft (300m)
WALKING FOR: 4-6 hours (plus stops)

Grade 2 for:
Fit novices, anyone with a reasonably active lifestyle.
TERRAIN: Undulating, perhaps lumpy, with some off path rough walking.
AVERAGE DAILY DISTANCE: 8-12miles (13-20km)
AVERAGE DAILY ASCENT: One or two ascents of up to 1500ft (450m)
WALKING FOR: 5-7 hours (plus stops)

Grade 3 for:
Fit novices, regular vigorous exercisers, regular hill-walkers / hikers. Good fitness and stamina required.
TERRAIN: Longish varied paths or rough unpathed hillsides.
AVERAGE DAILY DISTANCE: 8-14 miles (13-22km)
AVERAGE DAILY ASCENT: Up to 2500ft (770m)
WALKING FOR: 6-8 hours (plus stops)

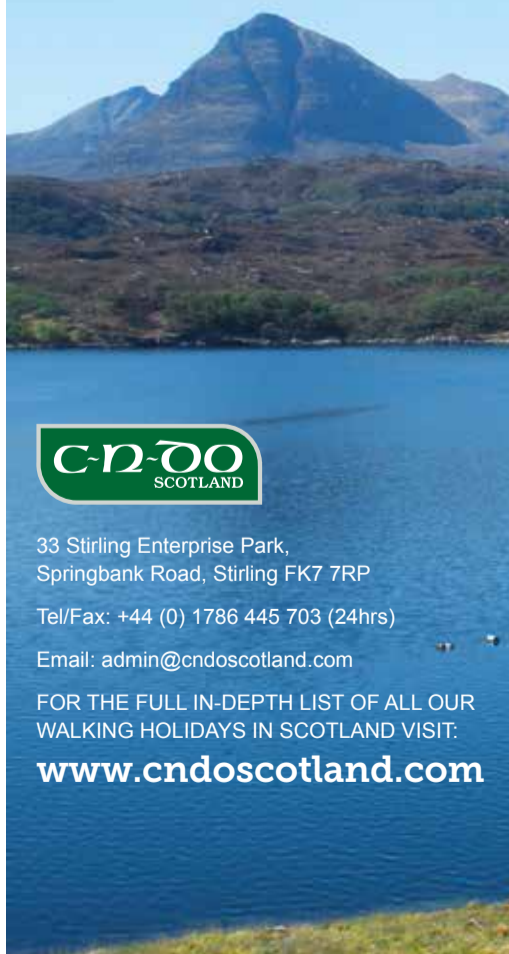

Grade 4 for:
More suited to regular hill walkers / hikers with recent regular experience of rough terrain. Good fitness and stamina necessary. Adventurous and fit novices could be fine - please ask.
TERRAIN: Mountainous with a mix of paths and off path ground which may be rough.
AVERAGE DAILY DISTANCE: 8-14 miles (13-22km)
AVERAGE DAILY ASCENT: Up to 4000ft (1250m)
WALKING FOR: 6-9 hours (plus stops)

Grade 5 for:
Must be regular hill walkers / hikers. Must be fit and experienced enough to enjoy long days with significant ascent and descent.
TERRAIN: Much is rough and steep even when on paths.
AVERAGE DAILY DISTANCE: 8-16 miles (13-26km)
AVERAGE DAILY ASCENT: Up to 5000ft (1400m)
WALKING FOR: 6-10 hours (plus stops)

HIGHLANDS & ISLANDS

Shetland Isles

> Grade: 1-2 > Accommodation: 2xferry cabins, 6xYH+B
> Transport: FT

It's wild, it's wonderful, it's fascinating; island hopping at its best. There's a terrific mixture of dramatic scenery but with plenty of quiet corners; thousands of sea birds and yet time to watch just one; seals, otters, sharks, whales, dolphins and every chance of seeing them. With a character firmly rooted in its Viking past, and many remains of those earlier times, this area is a must for lovers of wildlife, dramatic scenery, archaeology and geology.

We're re-introducing this trip by popular demand. Islands included – Shetland Mainland, Yell, Unst, Fetlar, Muckle Roe, Mousa, (St Ninian's Isle), maybe more.

Outer Hebrides

> Grade: 2 > Accommodation: 7xYH, 2xGH+B > Transport: FT

From Lewis, through Harris, Benbecula and the Uists, to Eriskay and finally Barra and Vatersay, we explore the islands and experience a fascinating way of life. Start by staying in a traditional thatched cottage to set the scene, enjoy beaches to die for, wide Hebridean skies, tweed making and Gaelic, history at every turn, a sense of space, and time for reflection. You've simply got to go there!

Handful of Islands

> Grade: 1 > Accommodation: 6xYH+B > Transport: FT

7 islands in 5 walking days; Kerrera, Lismore, Luing, Mull, Iona, Staffa, Erraid. Pure, cool magic! Half based in the buzzing island supply port of Oban, and half on the Ross of Mull, from both of which we venture forth daily to collect another one or even two of the varied scattering of islands nearby. They're all different, special and unforgettable. Easy paced strolling will allow us to absorb the character, store the views, and create memories. Fantastic island-hopping exploring.

Road to the Isles

> Grade: 2-3 > Accommodation: 7xYH+FB > Transport: FS

Great selection of wilderness trails between Rannoch and the Isle of Skye give an insight into cattle droving days of old. Awesome landscapes with wildlife galore. Savour places like Loch Ossian and Glen Affric, using routes like the Lairig Leacach, Bealach an Sgairne and the Corrieyairack, before experiencing the haunting clearance villages of Boreraig and Suisnish.

WILDERNESS BACKPACKING

Fisherfield Raid

> Grade: 5 > Accommodation: 3xC+FB > Transport: NT

Our base camp in the heart of the Fisherfield 'Big Six' is a location without compare from which to collect these fine remote mountains. Backpacking and camping required.

Ben Alder Raid

> Grade: 4 > Accommodation: 3xC+FB > Transport: NT

This raid is just perfect for giving wilderness backpacking a try. There is a pleasant undulating trek on easy terrain to and from our chosen camping spot, with two days in between to capture Carn Dearg, Geal Charn, Aonach Beag, Beinn Eibhinn, Beinn Bheoil and Ben Alder. You'll be surrounded by mountains but won't have to carry all your kit up and down them. You're there just to enjoy.

WAYS & TRAILS

John o' Groat's Trail

> Grade: 2-3 > Accommodation: 12xYH+FB > Transport: FS

147miles (235km) of interesting, varied coastal delights, perfectly designed to entice the inquisitive walker onward. The route, from Inverness to John o' Groat's, is the logical addition to an expanding network of ways and trails that will itself become a classic. We offer this opportunity to any average fit walkers with a sufficiently pioneering spirit to tackle this new route well ahead of the masses. You'll be fascinated, enthralled, stunned and intrigued by what you see, feel and hear, and drawn ever northward by the sheer diversity of the landscapes and lifestyles.

A Cape Wrath Trail

> Grade: 3-4 > Accommodation: 15xYH, 3xGH+FB > Transport: FS

Very achievable, definitely adventurous, continuous trek, from Fort William in the heart of the Highlands, to Cape Wrath, the north west tip of the UK mainland; about 225 miles of fascinating wild landscapes and ever changing vistas in 17 one day stages. (No need to stay in tents or bothies, or to carry heavy kit; daily support is provided). It's hard to believe there is so much wild, untamed terrain in the UK. This is a route of incomparable contrasts, of wild passes and lonely glens, between awe-inspiring mountains and along stunning coasts. The opportunity for wildlife spotting is considerable, as we pass through habitats where one would not be surprised to see creatures like – red deer, golden eagles, ptarmigan, otters, seals, basking sharks... to name but a few. This is a great adventure for the intrepid!

A Cape Wrath Trail (South)

> Grade: 4 > Accommodation: 10xYH+FB > Transport: FS

Follow the Southern section of this challenging route in 10 manageable chunks, from Fort William to Ullapool. Return next year to finish it off.

A Cape Wrath Trail (North)

> Grade: 3 > Accommodation: 5xYH, 3xGH+FB > Transport: FS

Follow the Northern section of this challenging route in 7 reasonable bits, from Ullapool to Cape Wrath. Great as a stand-alone holiday or to conclude unfinished business.

Skye Trail

> Grade: 3 > Accommodation: 9xYH+FB > Transport: FS

The Isle of Skye or 'winged island' with its 300 miles coast line, is one of those places that inspires with its at times savage natural beauty, its history and wildlife. Also known as the Misty Island (Eilean a' Cheò), its pervading Gaelic culture gives a character that is quite different. The whole combination draws one back again and again. This wild and rugged walk from south to north, of some 80 odd miles, is constantly fascinating, regularly challenging, and never boring. It will provide memories to last a lifetime.

INDEPENDENT

WAYS & TRAILS

Any Scottish 'Way' In Any Way

There are far too many to mention here. Please refer to the 'Independent' or 'Specially for You' sections on our website.

Trossachs National Park Trail

A wee jaunt of about 30 miles through the eastern parts of Loch Lomond & Trossachs National Park. 3 nights plus 3 fine days.

West Highland Way Highlights

A condensed version of this classic, with walking over 4 days from Crianlarich to Fort William; a great option if you're short of time to explore.

Loch Lomond to Loch Ness

This 80 miles route is sure to become one of the classic walks of Scotland; from the shores of the Bonnie Banks of Loch Lomond to the shores of Loch Ness.

HIGHLANDS & ISLANDS

Highlands & Isle of Skye

If you want to see a wide variety of Scotland in a short time, this 10 night holiday is the tour for you. The flexible itinerary allows you to choose the balance between walking and sightseeing. Bases are in Highland Perthshire, the Isle of Skye and the West Highlands, each providing a choice of walks and sightseeing.

Skye Explorer

9 night holiday for Skye exploring. The semi-flexible itinerary allows you to choose the balance between walking and sightseeing. Elgol, Coruisk, Sligachan, the Storr, the Quiraing are all choices, plus the landscapes are just stunning. Combine this freedom with a couple of the Classic train journeys of Europe and you have a holiday to dream about.

Island Hop, Walking & Whisky

7 night island hopping tour with 5 walking days and the possibility of visiting distilleries on Arran, Islay and Jura. These islands are wonderful examples of the variety of walking, landscapes, and history of Scotland. Rocky coasts, white strand beaches, wooded castle gardens, isolated standing stones, bustling island life, and the ancient heart of Gaeldom merge seamlessly.

INSPIRED BY AN ALTERNATIVE CHALLENGE?

C~N~Do has years of experience of organising fun, memorable and, at times, life-changing walking holidays.

Walking with small groups means we can tailor-make or adapt any of our open trips.

Many folk have commissioned private trips for groups of friends or colleagues, an extended family gathering, or special interest groups who want to explore Scotland through the slow travel medium of walking.

For small or larger groups, we can work with you to put together a unique programme of activities and exploration.
